

Europe: East and West

Undergraduate Research Symposium 2013

Are you interested in Western Europe or Eastern Europe, including Russia?
Then present a paper at the 2013 Undergraduate Research Symposium!

PROCESS

- ♦ January 28: Deadline to submit applications with 250-300 word abstracts.
- ♦ Mid-February: Students who have passed the selection process will be notified.
- ♦ March 20: Deadline to submit final papers.
- ♦ April 12: Undergraduate Research Symposium Presentations.

The Symposium is intended to provide advanced research experience to undergraduates and is modeled after conferences traditionally held at the graduate level. A selection committee determines which students qualify to present their papers at the Symposium at the University of Pittsburgh, Oakland campus. At the event, participants will make 10-15 minute presentations on their research to a discussant and audience. Participants will receive constructive feedback on their papers from the discussant. The presentations are open to the public. Final papers must be 10-15 pages in length.

Undergraduate Research Symposium 2011 Participants

FOR MORE INFORMATION AND AN APPLICATION, contact Gina Peirce at gbpeirce@pitt.edu or visit www.ucis.pitt.edu/ursymposium/

Sponsored by: Center for Russian and East European Studies
European Studies Center / European Union Center of Excellence
International Business Center
University Center for International Studies, University of Pittsburgh

